TEXAS HAS NEW SENATOR, GOVERNOR

GOVERNOR O'DANIEL TAKES OATH MONDAY AS U. S. SENATOR

TERM AS TEXAS GOVERNOR AUTOMATICALLY ENDS WITH HIS SWEARING IN

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4. (AP)—Governor W. Lee O'Daniel took the oath of office today as senator from Texas to fill the unexpired term of the late Senator Morris Sheppard.

The new senator said Texas laws automatically terminated his term as governor of the Lone Star State.

Senator Connally (D-Texas) escorted him to the chair, where Senator McKellar (D-Tenn.), presiding, administered the oath. The new senator then signed his name in the senate register and Edwin Halsey, secretary of the senate, presented him with the pen he had used.

Immediately after O'Daniel took the oath, the senate confirmed his selection by the senate steering committee to be a member of the commerce, claims, district of Columbia and irrigation and reclamation committees.

Connally then introduced O'Daniel to McKellar. A moment later O'Daniel stepped down from the rostrum and was congratulated first from the floor by Senator Langer (R-ND).

Several Texas representatives stood in the senate to watch the induction, then came around to one side of the chamber and O'Daniel advanced to meet them.

Greeted by Texans

Those greeting him included Representatives Lanham, Russell, Kleberg, Thomas, Worley, Beck, J. Nick Parrish, Luther Johnson and Summers.

J. NICK PARRISH, LIFELONG RESIDENT OF COUNTY, DIES

J. Nick Parrish, 69, lifelong resident of Corsicana and pioneer in the Corsicana oil industry, died at his home at Emhouse early Monday after an illness of several weeks. Funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock from the Emhouse Methodist church with interment in the Cunningham cemetery.

The deceased was born in Corsicana and lived here for a number of years but for the last 27 years had resided at Emhouse, where he was engaged in the gin business. He was active in Red Cross and other types of relief work and many other civic and community enterprises.

He is survived by his wife, two daughters, Misses Lucille and Maxine Parrish of Dallas; one son, J. Nick Parrish of Ennis, and other relatives.

Funeral services will be held at the family home, 1001 S. Main, at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

Arrangements are being handled by Sutherland-McCammon.

LIVELY SENSE OF HUMOR BIG STOCK IN TRADE FOR NEW TEXAS GOVERNOR, COKE STEVENSON

AUSTIN, Aug. 4. (AP)—Coke Stevenson's lively sense of humor is likely to be one of his outstanding characteristics as governor of Texas.

His appreciation of a joke and his ability to make frequent laughing remarks have been noteworthy during his long service in the Legislature.

Stevenson often has used a shaft of wit to ease a tense moment.

"There was a time, for example, when two senators were engaged in bitter wrangling as the time arrived for a joint session. The lieutenant governor banged his gavel for order, but that didn't stop the argument. He pounded again, long and loud. The senators stopped their quarrel.

"Just let me make an announcement and then you all can continue," Stevenson said. "The rest of us are going over to the house to hear the governor of Louisiana."

Opening a morning session this chaplain, who regularly offers a prayer, was absent.

"Well," Stevenson remarked, "I guess you fellows will have to be on your own today."

"This is the way Stevenson described the parade:

GASOLINE CURFEW FAILED TO REDUCE CONSUMPTION MUCH

SUNDAY TRAFFIC IN EASTERN SEABOARD AREA ANNOUNCED NEARLY NORMAL

By the Associated Press.

A writer of sectional reports, in the absence of any official figures as to the success or failure of the Eastern seaboard's first gasoline curfew last (Sunday) night, appeared today to boil down to these points:

1. Virtually all service stations from Maine to Florida (except for half of New York City's independent ones) complied with the first curfew.
2. The day-time sale of gasoline everywhere along the Eastern seaboard exceeded the total volume of an average August Sunday's day-time sales.
3. Traffic was just as heavy and in many places heavier than usual during the after-dark hours.

In New York City the chain stations closed promptly at 7 p. m., but about one-half of the independent ones, which constitute 60 per cent of the city's total, remained open.

Highways skirting Long Island's shores, however, were without gasoline service and motorists who had ventured into outlying regions without getting sufficient fuel had to abandon their stalled cars. Traffic was reported to be normal.

Axis Troops Are Withdrawing From Tobruk Positions

CAIRO, Egypt, Aug. 4. (AP)—Axis troops are withdrawing from advanced positions in the siege of Tobruk, a British general headquarters communique declared today.

This, however, did not indicate withdrawal of the German-Italian forces from their rewon hold on eastern Libya.

The British have reported repeatedly in the past week that their hit-and-run night patrols striking out from Tobruk have failed to make contact with the enemy.

COKE R. STEVENSON BECAME GOVERNOR OF TEXAS NOON MONDAY

WILL RECEIVE OATH OF OFFICE NEXT FRIDAY AT SIMPLE INAUGURAL SERVICES

AUSTIN, Aug. 4. (AP)—Coke R. Stevenson, 53-year-old ranchman and lawyer, became governor of Texas shortly before noon today when Governor W. Lee O'Daniel took the oath in Washington as a United States senator.

Stevenson had been serving his second term as lieutenant-governor.

The tall, pipe-smoking, slow-speaking Stevenson was surrounded by friends in the public reception room of the state capitol when informed by a reporter that O'Daniel had vacated the governorship officially.

"Well, what do I do now?" he queried, then joined others in laughter.

His first official act was the signing of a deed to a small tract of state land in Kimble County on which the purchaser had made final payment.

Answering a question, he said every public official in Texas was required to take an oath of office, and although he had become governor, he would receive the oath of office at simple inaugural ceremonies.

Stevenson said he had telegraphed congratulations to O'Daniel and had received a similar telegram from O'Daniel.

The telegram to O'Daniel said: See STEVENSON, page 3

NEGRO FACES CHARGE MURDER CONNECTION DEATH OF WHITE MAN

ALLEGED HURLED MILK BOTTLE INTO TRUCK OCCUPIED BY TWO MEN

George Frederick Mann, aged 31 years, truck driver, was pronounced dead shortly after arriving at the P. and S. Hospital about 5 o'clock Sunday morning suffering a severed artery in the left arm near the shoulder. Officers arrested Arthur Bradley, negro ex-convict, 600 East Collin in connection with the alleged hurling of a milk bottle into the pick-up truck in which Mann and Roy Brewer were sitting. Police Chief Nutt stated Bradley said the negro stated a statement about circumstances leading up to the trouble as did witnesses.

The accused negro was arrested by city police and later was transferred to the county jail by Chief of Detectives Jeff Spencer.

A formal charge of murder was accepted by Chas. T. Eastler, criminal district attorney, and was filed before Judge Pat Geraughty. Bond was set at $2,000 at the hearing before Judge Geraughty, but Bradley was still in the county jail Monday. Sheriff Cap Curington said.

Funeral services for Mann were held Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock from the Corley Funeral home chapel with burial in Oakwood cemetery. The rites were conducted by Rev. A. E. Starks.

Surviving are his wife and a son, William; parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Mann; four brothers, Jesse, Clarence and Doyle Mann, all of Corsicana; and two sisters, Misses Johnnie and Lorena Mann, both of Corsicana.

Fallbearers were M. E. Lake, Roy Brewer, Joe Wylie, Woodrow Lee, J. P. Kelly and Overton Crider.

District Judge Re-Sets Salary County Auditor

In an order entered in the district court Monday morning and a letter dispatched to the commissioners court of Navarro county by District Judge Wayne R. Howell, the salary of E. Y. Cunningham, county auditor, was set at $2,500, that formerly drawn by that officer. Judge Howell Friday afternoon had recommended to the commissioners court the salary be raised to $3,100 and such an order was passed.

In the letter to the commissioners court, Judge Howell referred to his appearance before that body and the approval of the increase in salary, and then said in part:

"However, irrespective of that I have, after careful and deliberate consideration, and after better familiarizing myself with the uncertain tax situation confronting us, concluded that it would not be wise to increase the auditor's salary at this time, however much it may be deserved, for two reasons: First, because unless a special session of the Legislature is called and the Bond Assumption Bill is re-enacted it will mean a large increase in the tax rate of our road districts; and, second, because I am unwilling, for reasons which I think you will understand, to have the county auditor, who is appointed by the district judge, to be singled out for an increase in salary under the circumstances."

"Accordingly, I request, and hereby authorize, you to rescind your order of last Friday raising the salary of the county auditor fifty dollars per month in accordance with my recommendation."

TROOPS ENROUTE TO LOUISIANA PASSED THRU HERE MONDAY

SPENT NIGHT IN HILLSBORO AND TO STAY AT CARTHAGE MONDAY NIGHT

The fourth echelon of troops from Camp Bowie, comprising members of the 13th Cavalry, formerly members of the 10th Cavalry, passed through Corsicana between 9:30 and 10 a. m. Monday after an overnight stay at Hillsboro en route to Louisiana for the summer maneuvers. They were scheduled to stay at Carthage Monday night and reach Mansfield, La., on Tuesday.

Arrival of the troops in Corsicana was delayed several minutes Monday morning when one of the horses being transported in huge vans lost his footing and it was necessary to halt the column until he could be put back on his feet.

The advance guard of the column passed through Corsicana about 8:30 a. m. and was followed by a reconnaissance car about 9 o'clock. The main column was made up of about forty vehicles which included motorcycles, command, scout and reconnaissance cars, a number of two and a half ton trucks, an ambulance, a tank wagon, and fifteen tractor trailers which carried eight horses and about nine men each.

Some of the scout cars were reported to have developed motor trouble in Corsicana and halted here until repairs could be made.

The first echelon of the 56th Cavalry, composed of Texas troops, is scheduled to pass through the city about the same time Thursday.

MUSSOLINI DECLARES CLASH BETWEEN TWO WORLDS UNDER WAY

ROME, BERLIN, TOKYO ON ONE SIDE; LONDON, WASHINGTON, MOSCOW ON OTHER

ROME, Aug. 4. (AP)—Premier Mussolini, in a speech made public today, told Italian troops leaving for the Russian front that "line-up now is complete" with Rome, Berlin and Tokyo on one side and London, Washington and Moscow on the other "for a clash between two worlds."

The premier's declaration, hitherto undivided, was made to Blackshirts he reviewed July 29 at Mantua before they left to fight alongside the Germans and their other allies against the Red army.

It drew to the Blackshirts they were going to take part in a "battle of giants" and said the "drama" which Italian fascism began against Bolshevism had reached its "fifth act."

The other four, presumably, were the fascist march on Rome which put the fascists in power in Italy, the conquest of Ethiopia, the civil war in Spain and the defeat of France.

"Legionnaires," Mussolini told the troops, "a great honor and a supreme privilege await you and I am sure you feel it in your souls as volunteers, fighters, the honor and privilege of taking part in an authentic battle of giants."

"For 20 years the peoples of the earth have been agitated by this alternative, this hard dilemma—fascism or Bolshevism, Rome or Moscow."

PETAIN BELIEVED TO HAVE DECIDED RESIST GERMANY

GERMAN-CONTROLLED PARIS PRESS SEE HAND OF UNITED STATES BEHIND DECISION

VICHY, Unoccupied France, Aug. 4. (AP)—The axis will not be given military facilities in French North Africa such as Japan got in French Indo-China even should Vichy consider the African territories menaced, authorized sources indicated tonight.

They implied that this was an answer to a statement Saturday by Acting Secretary of State Sumner Welles, in Washington, that the attitude of the United States toward Vichy would be determined by "the effectiveness with which France defends its territories against the axis powers' aggression."

They said that this would be the nearest thing to an official answer.

After reviewing the difficulties of sending reinforcements to Indo-China, which they said, had led Vichy to accept "Japanese military precautions," the authorized sources concluded by asserting: "The situation is not bound in any other part of what is left of the French empire and particularly in Africa."

Amateur Pilots Guests Sunday Local Jaycees

Sixteen civilian airplanes, piloted by amateur flyers from Dallas and nearby points, arrived at Corsicana on a good-will flight Sunday morning and were received by members of the Corsicana Junior Chamber of Commerce and scores of spectators.

President Paul Mitchell headed the official reception committee of the Junior Chamber. The flight was sponsored by the Dallas Junior Chamber of Commerce in cooperation with the Hudson Flying School there.

Upon arrival in Corsicana, the group was served ice cold watermelon and other refreshments. Each pilot was presented three gallons of aviation fuel by the Jaycees with which to continue their flight back to Dallas.

The good-will flyers breakfasted in Tyler Sunday morning and then flew to Corsicana, arriving here about 10:45 o'clock. Scores of aviation enthusiasts and interested citizens were on hand to greet them.

Similar good-will flights are conducted each Sunday by the Dallas Junior Chamber of Commerce flying club to attract and interest aviation and boost local flying institutions.

The planes landed on Eddie Pruitt's flying field about one mile southeast of Corsicana on the Magenta road. Each ship was given minute inspection by the milling throngs who seemed undaunted by a blazing sun and the high temperature.

The planes began leaving about 12 o'clock and by 12:15 all the ships had cleared the field.

Belgian Official Predicts Sudden Collapse Germany

LONDON, Aug. 4. (AP)—Camille Gutt, finance minister of the Belgian government in exile, in a BBC broadcast tonight said he believed a sudden German collapse "is no longer so far off."

"We have now started on the road to victory," he said. "This is to say that the element of extreme speed has been eliminated by the remarkable resistance of the Reds, threatening to saddle Hitler with a long war, and that might easily mean a disaster to one."

A vital element in the present grim and bloody stage of the conflict lies in the number and quality of the reserves available to both sides. The millions of men who flung into the line in this great battle, which in its early

NO EFFORT RAISE ADDITIONAL TAXES COMMITTEE DECIDES

IF PROVISION REQUIRING JOINT INCOME TAX RETURNS ELIMINATED MILLIONS GONE

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4. (AP)—The ways and means committee decided today against making any effort to raise additional compensating revenue if the house should eliminate from the $3,529,200,000 tax bill the provision requiring all married persons to file joint income tax returns.

It was estimated that the elimination of provision, criticized by President Roosevelt, would lop about $300,000,000 from the bill's estimated production of revenue.

A hurriedly called session, however, the committee rejected a proposed substitute by Rep. Dingell (D-Mich) which would have permitted separate returns in all states and provided for a drastic increase in individual income tax rates to make up the revenue lost which would result.

Chairman Doughton (D-NC) said the committee was informed that the legislative council could not have the amendment drafted in time for house consideration and, therefore, the committee decided to do nothing about it, because the house would be voting on it.

STRUGGLE ON FAR-FLUNG FRONT IN RUSSIA ENTERING NEW PHASE OF VIOLENT, DECISIVE BATTLES

By DEWITT MACKENZIE.

"The struggle of the Red army with the fascist hordes," says the Soviet government newspaper Izvestia, "is entering a new phase of violent and decisive battles."

That seems to describe the position rather accurately. The Germans have increased their pressure on the Russian right wing at Leningrad, are continuing their fierce attack on the center at the strategic city of Kiev in the south. These battles will be decisive in so far as determining whether the Bolsheviks can hold their present front between the Baltic and the Black Sea. They aren't at all likely to end the war.

The time has arrived when we also can agree with Izvestia's claim that "it is already obvious that Hitler's blitzkrieg trump, on which he staked everything, is beaten."

This is to say that the element of extreme speed has been eliminated by the remarkable resistance of the Reds, threatening to saddle Hitler with a long war, and that might easily mean a disaster to one."

A vital element in the present grim and bloody stage of the conflict lies in the number and quality of the reserves available to both sides. The millions of men who flung into the line in this great battle, which in its early

GERMAN TROOPS ARE WITHIN 50 MILES OF UKRAINE CAPITAL

GENERAL REPORTS, HOWEVER, ON OTHER PARTS LINE ARE STILL CONFLICTING

By The Associated Press.

German troops lunging past the bloody Zhitomir sector on the southern front have advanced within 50 miles of Kiev, capital of the Soviet Ukraine, the Russians admitted today, while both sides told of new slaughter by the thousands in the 44-day-old struggle.

Adolf Hitler's high command also claimed new success on the vital central front guarding Moscow.

"The bulk of Soviet armed forces trapped were at Smolensk now have been destroyed. The remainder is facing dissolution," a German communique said.

Smolensk is 230 miles west of Moscow.

Meanwhile, authorized sources in Vichy indicated today that the axis will not be given military bases in French North Africa, such as Japan got in French Indo-China, even if the Vichy government should consider France's Africa territories menaced.

Clamor For Closer Co-Operation.

In recent days, the press in German-occupied Paris has clamored for closer French-German co-operation, presumably including the granting of bases at Dakar, Casablanca and Morocco.

On the fighting front, a Finnish communique reported that Soviet troops were attempting numerous counter-attacks in the vicinity of Lake Ladoga, but that they had been hurled back with great numbers killed, wounded and taken prisoner.

Nazi troops said 2,300 Russians were killed, thousands taken prisoner and 71 tanks captured in an unstates northern area. This may have been the same action reported by the German high command.

British Bombers Continue Pound Nazi Objectives

LONDON, Aug. 4. (AP)—British bombers pounded Germany and occupied France day and night over the week end, carrying their heavy offensive to a peak with a Saturday night mass attack on Berlin.

There were new forays into western Germany last night. Despite unfavorable weather, the raids last night carried to Hannover and Frankfurt, where industries and communications were the objectives, as well as to the docks at Calais.

As the British daylight planes returned from their attacks yesterday, squadrons of night bombers set off in the dusk across the channel and, through the night, the noise of their bombs and lights from their fires in France were visible even from England's shores.

Only a few German bombers, however, were seen.

LEGISLATIVE BLINDERS

It seems as if quite a few of our statesmen in Washington, both in the Senate and the House, are wearing blinders. Certainly when they talk about the present world situation they don't seem to be seeing what most of the American press and public see. You might fancy that some of them were living in a different world. Or at least in a different age.

This is a time which, more than any other in our history, calls for realism—for clear vision and logical and decisive action. The stability and safety of our country are being challenged. Our freedom, our civilization itself, is threatened as never before.

It is very dangerous to assume that we can blunder through these deepening crises as we have blundered through many others. For these outbreaks in Europe, in Africa, in Asia, in South America, are fundamental. The dangers we have always brushed aside in the past, as things that could never happen to us, are here now. We are actually looking at them. And we are forced to do something about them, in spite of the indifference and perversity of men in public life who seem to think they can abolish perils by ignoring them, or blast them away with oratory.

A WORD TO CONSUMERS
The defense stamps and bonds are not selling so well as they should. Maybe there has not been enough advertising in their behalf.

A factor in the inflation bogey. Too many people are afraid of rising prices and so buy goods instead of stamps and bonds. The latter, they say, will never be worth more than their face value while commodities keep on going up in price.

The sad thing about such reasoning is that it is one of the causes of inflation. Their own sugar folly at the beginning of the war in Europe ought to have taught American consumers something. At that time so many people were afraid of a sugar shortage that they proceeded to create one. They bought up all the sugar in the retail stores so fast that replacement could not keep up, prices rose and sugar seemed to vanish. Fortunately that blunder was halted by government action and the fact that there was plenty of sugar.

It would be much smarter now not to play that sugar game again, but instead to go out and buy defense bonds and stamps or tuck away some cash to pay those growing taxes.

SLEEP-WALKING.
One of the finest bits of writing that we've noticed lately is this, from Jay Franklin's column:

"Give us action and the sense of action. I have seen America in action, and we are in action again, but that time it was a march forward to meet danger with open eyes. Now it is like the steady but uncanny progress of a sleep-walker."

"Give us our torch of glory before we, too, go down to join the multitude of the nameless dead. Give us that and we will move mountains. Deprive us of it and we will fumble and bungle and end by forming the tragic parade of those who gave too little and too late."

Democracies are sunk unless they learn to act quickly. The autocracies don't snarl themselves up with barbed wire and red tape and political squabbles.

If the war-thrift experts keep on telling motorists to "drive slow and save gas," we may soon be hearing "in that ancient slogan, 'Get a horse!'"

Italy rejoices to learn that Fiorello La Guardia is going to run for mayor of New York again. There's one Italian who can win!

Our western hemisphere is expanding so rapidly that we hardly recognize it.

Slowly and surely modern civilization abolishes leg-work.

JUST FOLKS

(Copyright, 1937, Edgar A. Guest)

"POOR, FOOLISH BOY!"

Oh many there are who have judgment sound,
Know high from low and the square from round.
They weigh and measure and count the cost
Lest they pay too much or a bit be lost.
They've ears to listen and eyes to see.
Whatever they buy must a bargain be.

Their motto from dawn to the fall of night:
"Don't take one step till you're sure you're right!"

I remember my mother's: "Poor, foolish boy!"
As I went to her with a broken toy.
Or spent my pennies for trifling things.
"Poor, foolish boy!" and the phrase still clings!

My father said in his manner sad:
"Will never you come to good sense, my lad?
Will never you learn the dear from cheap?
Will never you look before you leap?"

CARELESS HOUSE-HOLDER.

A man in a small town in Illinois had a lot of bad luck the other day. His house burned down and most of its contents were destroyed. Among the lost papers was his fire insurance policy. And the final blow was his inability to remember from what company he had bought it.

Perhaps his solution will be to advertise in the newspapers.

Meanwhile, why weren't his important papers in a fireproof container which could have been removed easily at the first sign of danger? Better yet, they should have been deposited in a safety box elsewhere.

The lesson ought to be taken to heart by all who read the story. Too many people are careless about their personal business affairs, losing or endangering documents of value to themselves and sometimes even forgetting bank accounts and other assets.

But that's the way humans are! When they learn, it is usually from bitter experience.

SHOWDOWN.

The behavior of the Japanese lately has shown their guilty consciences and the approach of a long-deferred showdown.

The democracies cannot yield tamely and let their property be seized and themselves be swept remorselessly from that quarter of the world. Aside from pride, we greatly need the rubber, tin, hemp and other materials of that region. America has a big stake, and in the future should have a far greater one, in the Pacific and Indian Oceans.

We do not seek to rob the Far East of its wealth and destroy or persecute orientals of any breed. We stand for world trade and universal access to important resources by all nations, but neither America nor Britain can tolerate the ruthless scrapping of treaties and international law, the grabbing of other nations' property and the slaughter of their people, in the limitless spread of Nazi lawlessness.

Democracies are sunk unless they learn to act quickly. The autocracies don't snarl themselves up with barbed wire and red tape and political squabbles.

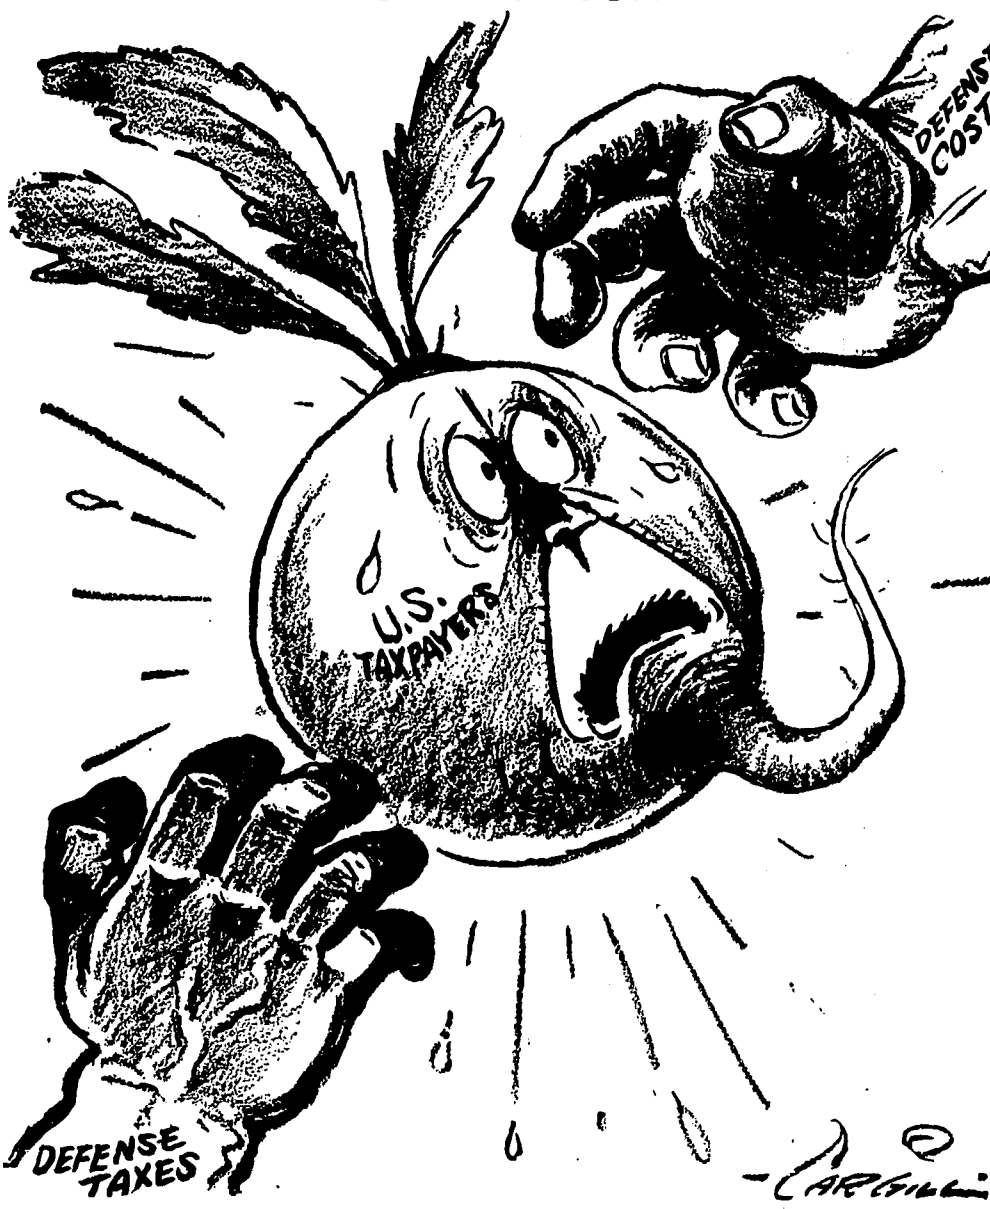

If the war-thrift experts keep on telling motorists to "drive slow and save gas," we may soon be hearing "in that ancient slogan, 'Get a horse!'"

Dormitory Rooms In YMCA Are Being Renovated Now

Three rooms in the YMCA dormitory have been modernized recently as first steps in a program to modernize the entire dormitory as soon as sufficient funds are available.

Equipped with modern, substantial furniture and a brighter color scheme, the rooms are given a more home-like appearance and constitute a definite appeal to the young men who reside there.

Maple furniture, consisting of bed, dresser, desk, two chairs, together with a rug, shades, curtains, and floor lamp have been included. One of the modernized rooms has wall fabric paper and a floor of asphalt tile, making the interior both attractive and serviceable.

The new arrangements eliminate considerable cost of upkeep from year to year and gives the young roomers more durable and attractive quarters.

TEMPERATURE FAILS TO REACH 100 MARK DURING MONTH JULY

For the second successive year the temperature did not reach 100 here in July on the official government thermometer. In 1940 the maximum temperature registered was 97 on July 30 and this year the top of 100 was reached on July 8, further comparison of the records reveals that it rained five days in July last year and the total rainfall was 4.48 inches. It rained five days during the month this year and the fall was 6.02 inches.

In 1939 however, it was a different story. There were 11 days in the month of July in which the thermometer registered 100 or more and the rainfall was only 1.85 in three days. The highest temperature registered during the month was 108 and during the three days that saw the maximum of 105 degrees. In 1938 there were 8 days with a temperature of 100 or more with the highest being 103 and a rainfall of 1.79 inches. The month was a sizzler in 1937. There were 18 days with a temperature of 100 or more, the highest being 105. The rainfall was 1.91 inches. So its goes—study of the record shows this is not the hottest time you ever saw or the coolest. Taken as a whole the records balance up and the average over a given period is about the same.

BEER ELECTION WAS ORDERED SATURDAY BY COMMISSIONERS

SALARY COUNTY AUDITOR WAS INCREASED BY COURT FRIDAY AFTERNOON

An order calling for an election in Navarro county, August 21, to decide whether or not the sale of beer will be legalized was unanimously passed at a recessed meeting of the commissioners' court Saturday morning. The salary of E. Y. Cunningham, county auditor, was raised from $2,500 to $3,000 per year Monday afternoon in an order passed by the commissioners' court after District Judge Wayne R. Howell had advised the court he had reappointed Cunningham for another two-year term and suggested this salary be set. Judge Howell said the auditors in surrounding counties drew larger salaries than did Cunningham and suggested it be set at the figure as paid by Hill county. Judge Howell told the court the county judge and county auditor remuneration was out of line with the other counties.

The petition calling for the beer election was presented in July, bearing more than 10 percent of the voters participating in the last gubernatorial election. The motion was made by Commissioner Jim Taylor and was seconded by Commissioner C. O. Slaughter. All voted aye on the motion. The beer election will be held on the same date and by the same presiding judges as will the road maintenance tax question, August 21. The voters on that date will decide whether an additional 15 cent road and bridge maintenance tax be levied. The date for the hearing on property owners in Precincts 3 and 4 was reset from August 16 to August 19 before the board of equalization.

The motion to accept the recommendation of the district judge for the raise for the county auditor was made by Taylor, seconded by Fitzgerald. All voted aye. A contract was awarded A. E. Foster & Son for the construction of a space in the basement for housing the school library, a partition in the county superintendent's office and a partition for the county auditor's office. The entire bid, less the painting, was $222.50, with the provision the county school board pay $100 toward the work for the school library. All voted aye. The motion was made by Commissioner Drew Gillen and was seconded by Fitzgerald.

STEVENSON

"From the executive office which you turned over to me it gives me pleasure to tender you my heartiest congratulations as you begin your duties as United States Senator, representing our great state. Mrs. Stevenson and I both hope you and Mrs. O'Daniel will find much happiness in your service there. Good luck to you always."

Doors of the beautiful gubernatorial suite on the second floor of the red granite statehouse were flung open early in the morning, and a big crowd of state officials and others moved in to extend congratulations to the new head of the state government.

Stevenson became acting governor when Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel left the state early yesterday en route to Washington to assume the senate vacancy caused by the death of Morris Sheppard.

He asserted his main activity of the day would be to keep open house and receive those who wanted to see him.

The mere opening of the reception room to the general public was a sharp departure from the custom of the O'Daniel administration.

Long ago Governor O'Daniel converted the room, one of the most beautiful in the capitol and designed by the builders of the capitol for consideration of the state office, and comparatively few persons saw it thereafter during his tenure.

No Special Session Needed.
Stevenson indicated he had done previously that he thought there was little demand and no justifying need for a special session of the legislature in August.

He had been urged to call one some time soon to consider renewing the county road bond law.

Plans had not been perfected for his inauguration beyond the tentative setting of the date for August 8, he said. With the definite vacating of the office by O'Daniel, arrangements were expected to crystallize rapidly, but it was certain nothing elaborate would be required.

Stevenson said his first official act probably would be the signing of a land patent to 54.8 acres of land in Kimble county, his home county, for his son, Coke R. The client was H. F. Rankin.

He disclosed that he had arrived at the office at 7:30 a. m. but found none of the office staff.

He had the O'Daniel setup, on hand.

Will Not Move Immediately.
In his old quarters back of the senate chamber, however, he indicated a number of letters and transacted other minor business.

Stevenson said he would continue to live in the apartment at the rear of the senate hall, supplied the lieutenant-governor by the senate, and would not move immediately into the governor's mansion.

"Moving into the mansion is a matter up to my wife," he said. Mrs. Stevenson widely known in state governmental and political circles because of close connection with her husband's public career, has been very ill in a hospital.

Answering a question, he said he did not know as yet what he would do about the O'Daniel industrialization organization, but would study the situation.

"What about Sunday broadcasts from the mansion?" a reporter asked. "Will you continue them?"

Stevenson grinned and lit his pipe. "That's an idea," he said.

Informed of Big Deficit.
AUSTIN, Aug. 4.—(P)—The state treasury formally advised Coke Stevenson when he moved into the governor's office that the deficit in the state's important general revenue fund was $30,450,391.

It was the deepest the fund ever had been in the red and compared with $20,026,817 on Jan. 17, 1939, the day W. Lee O'Daniel was sworn in as governor of Texas.

Idea On Government.
AUSTIN, Aug. 4.—(P)—Coke Stevenson differs with W. Lee O'Daniel on running a government like a business.

"It can't be done," said Stevenson one time, "because of the inherent difference in the organization between the two."

Stevenson said there were certain similarities, however.

"Of course," he pointed out, "the outgo must be less than, or balance, the income; otherwise you have an unbalanced budget, and any man knows that you could not long run a business if you continue to spend more than you take in."

Stevenson recalled the quotation, "the power to tax is the power to destroy," and said "it is a hard nut in the history of nations whose political and economic life has been destroyed by abuse of the taxing power."

AUSTIN, Aug. 4.—(P)—Vastly improved relations between the state and the governor's office are expected now that Coke Stevenson has succeeded W. Lee O'Daniel as governor.

It is a well-known fact that O'Daniel has not liked capital press correspondents and the correspondents haven't liked O'Daniel.

The reverse is true of Stevenson.

TAX BILL

The passage of the bill about 4 p. m. (Saturday night) time. For his part, Doughton said he did not believe the house would strike out the point return provision. But Speaker Rayburn was among many legislators who expressed belief that it would be eliminated.

Suggested Three Changes.
In an eleventh-hour appeal to the house ways and means committee, made public Saturday, the chief executive suggested three changes in the revenue measure, including modification of the joint return provision so as to exempt income actually earned by either husbands or wives, but the committee rejected all three proposals by "decisive majorities."

Nevertheless, informed legislators forecast that as a result of the president's action, the already strong opposition to the joint return provision could count on picking up additional votes.

Mr. Roosevelt's suggested committee revision of the excess profits tax so as to hit certain types of wealthy corporations harder and the lowering of existing individual income tax exemptions from $500 for single persons to $750, and from $2,000 for married persons to $1,500.

However, the house already has agreed upon drastic legislative procedure for consideration of the bill and this will preclude direct action on any of the president's suggestions. Under the rule adopted, the only amendments that would be considered are those recommended by the ways and means committee.

In its present form, the bill would virtually treble the tax of individuals in the lower and middle income brackets. For instance, a married man with no dependents and $2,500 of taxable income would pay $38.50 under the pending measure, whereas he would pay only $11 under existing law.

dored. "Are we—yes or no—for collaboration with Germany? Unconditionally and unreservedly? That is what they want to know on the German side."

An answering voice in the press of the unoccupied zone meanwhile, published in the Parisian press.

L'Effort at Marseille was the boldest paper in this respect, declaring Pétain was "trying sometimes to resist, sometimes to maneuver."

Saturday's cabinet meeting followed a 45-minute conference between Pétain and Ambassador Leahy. The Paris press also professed to see the United States ambassador's hand behind failure of Pétain to name Fernand De Brinon, French envoy to the Germans in Paris, to a new post.

Tension Relaxed.
VICHY. Unoccupied France, Aug. 4.—(P)—Tension relaxed here today and observers gaged the impression that the government of Marshal Philippe Pétain was holding to the status quo in its North African colonies.

After a Sunday meeting of the inner cabinet, the recent campaign by the German-controlled Paris press demanding joint German-French defense of Dakar against United States occupation.

son and the reporters.

O'Daniel as a governor never met correspondents easily and talked with them only as most previous governors had done. A few days after the start of his first term, he terminated general press conferences, and the conferences were never held again.

Stevenson, possibly as a result of 10 years experience in the legislature, including double terms as speaker and lieutenant-governor, has evinced understanding of reporters and their needs.

Ed Moore of Frost, member of the county school board, was a Corsicana visitor Monday morning.

FEDERAL LAND BANK PRESIDENT SPEAKER SATURDAY EVENING

DIRECTORS WERE RE-ELECTED BY TWO LOCAL FARM LOAN GROUPS

Sterling C. Evans, president of the Federal Land Bank of Houston, was the featured speaker at the annual stockholders meeting of the Navarro National Farm Loan Association and the Corsicana National Farm Loan Association Saturday night. Each association re-elected two directors whose terms had expired. J. P. Stubbs, president of the Navarro association, opened the sessions and presented E. L. Sanders of Corsicana, secretary-treasurer of both associations and director of the Federal Land Bank, who had charge of the program. Several 4-H Club boys and girls delivered talks. Refreshments were served. A negro male quartet and a tap-dancing negress also were presented. Group singing was led by Mrs. R. P. Garrett of White's Chapel and J. O. Sessions of Bessette.

The program committee was composed of Dr. W. W. Carter, E. B. Dawson, A. D. McMullan and Miss Alma Armstrong. Miss Armstrong also was chairman of the nominating committee.

Directors re-elected by the Navarro association were E. B. Dawson and Dr. Carter. Holdover directors were President Stubbs, Walter Beaton and Miss Armstrong. Directors re-elected by the Corsicana association were N. F. Garrett and C. V. Brethaupt. Holdover directors were T. J. Garner, president; A. D. McMullan and J. H. Weatherby, Hubbard.

Financial statements of the two associations were given by Sanders, showing each in excellent condition.

Youth On Program.
In the contest among the youthful speakers, Radford Beale, Corsicana, spoke of the 4-H Club meant to him, and was awarded first prize.

Martha Hamilton, Emhouse, discussing rural education, won second. Others were Darrell Williams, Corbet, Corsicana High, and Elmore, Corsicana High, social viewpoint of farming; Dorothy Elmore, farm boys and girls; and Mattie Hutchins, Oak Valley, Corsicana High, who spoke of the farm girls can aid in the financial problems.

H. C. Robinson, county agent, was presented and spoke briefly.

Outline History.
President Evans outlined some of the accomplishments of the Federal Land Bank during its twenty-four years history, in which two peaks and two economic depressions have been experienced. He said the bank had loaned more than $300,000,000 in its history and at the present time there are $189,000,000 in loans. A total of 100,000 Texas farmers and ranches have been clients, and there have been 300 farm loan associations.

The bank executive pointed out that in 1917 when the bank was organized, the common rate of interest on farms from 8 to 10 per cent while today it is 3 to 2 per cent. He explained that the bank charged one per cent more than the funds cost it and on that one per cent margin, had built up a surplus of $28,000,000. He said that only about $3,000,000 has been lost in some $12,000,000 in property taken back. To offset the $3,000,000 loss, the bank has retained the mineral rights of about 471,000 acres of land.

Mrs. Garrett thanked the association for the entertainment and program on behalf of the wives.

The program-meeting was held at the Fair Association on Highway 31. Several hundred were present.

Negro Injured.
Horatio Overton, 29, negro, received treatment at the P. and S. Hospital at an early hour Sunday morning for a head and side injuries.

DRY SKIN CARE

A dry skin will wrinkle easily and quickly—and still many women in their twenties do nothing about correcting a dry skin condition, never stopping to think that in the thirties and forties that skin will be old beyond its years.

A young beautiful skin is necessary to a career

Joan Crawford (MGM star soon to be seen in "When Ladies Meet") is most certainly an exception to this; indeed, most of the movie actresses take great care of their skin, because they realize how necessary a young and beautiful skin is to their career. Miss Crawford has always been a believer in that "ounce of prevention" and daily goes through the four steps in skin care—cleansing, toning, lubricating, and protecting. She would never dream of going to bed without first cleansing and toning, and lubricating, and doing the little face exercises that are so vital to a young, firm contour. And again in the morning she thoroughly cleanses and tones and protects.

as elsewhere, police stations received numerous calls for motorists seeking aid to get gasoline or reporting they would have to leave their cars in the street for the night.

While there was no official comment, it was recalled that the chief purpose of Ickes' request was to emphasize the seriousness of the situation to motorists and impress them with the thought that conservation must be practiced if rationing or other strict measures are to be avoided.

regular mess, and slept in the open after taking down their tent covers.

When the alert signal was given, they grabbed their bed rolls, ate breakfast, hopped into the transports and stepped on the gas. As the column filed out, General Birkhead declared his men were ready to flex their muscles and have into combat in the army's massive maneuvers during August and September.

"Our men are as hard as nails. We've had four months of preparatory work and now there will put us in trim for the big show. We'll win every battle they put us in; we'll accomplish every mission we're given."

The troops' itinerary called for passage through Zephyr, Muller, Goldthwaite, Starr, Evans, Gatesville, McGregor, Waco, Prairie Hill, Mexia and Teague before they reach the Fairfield bivouac area.

Residents of these towns clustered sidewalks to watch the long column file by.

Lack of sufficient trucks forced the 38th to transfer in two groups, machines carrying the first unit will shuttle back tomorrow and pick up the remainder of the Division—6,000 troops, mostly of the field artillery.

The second group will continue straight through to Mansfield, La., arriving Aug. 8. The trucks then will return to Fairfield to pick up the infantrymen.

When the field artillery departs from Bowie Wednesday, the camp virtually will be deserted, with only about 300 soldiers remaining to look after the bivouac.

The 38th Division postoffice will close Wednesday and the great camp will be a ghost city for two months.

Traffic Control Is Maintained by Air

WITH THE 38TH DIVISION TROOPS EN ROUTE TO LOUISIANA, Aug. 3.—(P)—As troops of the 38th division rolled toward Louisiana today, a twinned column hovered over the long column.

Inside the ship was Maj.-Gen. George V. Strong, Eighth Corps area commander, who is utilizing this movement of troops to test his system of ground traffic control from the air.

General Strong devised the method in order to give civilian traffic every courtesy of the road.

Through radio communication, as well as wireless—from his plane to commanders on the ground, the General issues orders intended to keep the 100-mile column of vehicles moving smoothly.

This is the first time such air-ground liaison has been maintained in this manner in the Third army.

If the General spots a washed-out bridge, a heavy congestion of traffic, an automobile accident, or other hazards of traffic which might snarl the army movement, he relays the information, with orders to the ground commanders. The ground commanders then relay the information throughout the column, if necessary by radio.

THE WAR TODAY

one of the greatest gambles of military history.

The question now arises as to which side has the most reserves of first-line caliber for replacements as the crisis swells up. The Muscovites have by far the greater reservoir of man-power, but whether these fresh troops are well trained isn't apparent as yet.

The Nazis themselves announced some time ago that the Bolsheviks were bringing up 8,000,000 reserves.

Air Raids in Suez Area

CAIRO, Egypt, Aug. 4.—(P)—The heaviest casualties yet recorded in an axis bombing of the Suez Canal Zone were reported by the Egyptian ministry of interior today.

O'DANIEL

O'Daniel in a reception room off the senate floor. Representatives Lanham, Poage and Beckworth met him when he arrived at the capital from the hotel and went to the reception room.

After the ceremony of taking the oath Senator O'Daniel released a telegram, written shortly before noon, congratulating Lieutenant Governor Coke Stevenson on becoming chief executive of Texas.

The telegram:

"Sworn in as United States senator at 12:02. Thus you immediately became governor of Texas at the same time I glad to be first to congratulate you. I wish you success as governor of Texas."

—W. Lee O'Daniel.

Sented in the front row gallery seats to witness the ceremony was the governor's family. After the greetings and congratulations were over, Senator O'Daniel took a seat in the back row, on the Democratic side of the chamber. His secretary came over with a number of letters and messages for him to read.

Greeted by Molly and Mike.

First to rush up to meet them were their newly-married daughter, Molly Wrather, and their son, Mike. The son's presence was a surprise to them, for he had flown up from Texas yesterday after having first decided not to witness his father's senate induction.

Next to greet the senator-elect out of the group gathered in the Union Terminal was Eugene B. Germany of Dallas, chairman of the Texas state Democratic executive committee. Germany had flown up from Dallas with Mike O'Daniel.

Only two Texas members of congress were on hand. They were Representative Nat Patton of Creckett, who was accompanied by Mrs. Patton, and Representative Lindley Beckworth of Gilmer. Others in the group included former Texas lieutenant governor Walter Woodall; Dale Miller of Dallas; Claude Williams, chairman of the Texas unemployment compensation commission; Judge Tom Beauchamp, Austin, and George Nulle Austin.

Jack Wrather, O'Daniel's new son-in-law, stood off a few feet and took pictures as Mike and Molly greeted their parents.

The governor's party went directly from the station to the Hotel Washington. There he was interviewed in his room by newsmen. He expected to be on hand in the senate chamber at noon to take the oath.

O'Daniel said Texas statutes made his tenure a governor terminate automatically when he became a senator. He told friends that he might also telegraph his resignation as governor when he took the senatorial oath.

O'Daniel wore a white linen suit, straw hat and Mrs. O'Daniel a white dress and black hat when they arrived. The Wrathers flew into the capital from New York this morning.

Molly left a bit of lipstick on her father's face when she kissed him. Someone laughed and she hurriedly got out a handkerchief and wiped it off. At the request of photographers, O'Daniel good-naturedly went through that scene again.

O'Daniel told reporters he would introduce today if possible his anti-violence bill to speed up national defense production.

He was informed he was slated to get an assignment on the District of Columbia committee, usually occupied by first team senators, and asked if he favored voting rights for residents of the district.

"I favor a vote for everyone and I don't believe in a poll tax," he declared.

Judge Beauchamp took the couple in his car to a hotel.

Several reporters who followed them to their suite were invited in for fifteen minutes questioning of the governor's party.

Asked how he would vote on the selective service extension bill,

O'Daniel said he wouldn't know until he studied it.

Mrs. O'Daniel said she was glad to be in the capital. For the time being they will reside at the hotel.

W. A. Miller, Anthony, Kas., bank president, came into the room and was greeted warmly by the O'Danields.

O'Daniel said he once worked as a stenographer in a flour mill across the street from Miller's bank and became a close friend of the banker at that time.

Germany observed that within an hour after his arrival in Washington O'Daniel had been asked more questions and talked more with reporters than all during his terms as governor after his only two press conferences.

D. R. Potter, appointed by O'Daniel as his secretary, said a regular press conference might be arranged later in the day.
